On the Home page, clicking My Application on the left menu, then clicking on the New Application box on the right, Applicants can access the page listing all the available Calls for Applications (grant rounds). Select within the round 2023 Spring Seed Grant initiative the relevant call for the disease you are interested in and click Apply to create a new Application form.

Six calls are open, focusing on different diseases/syndromes; you may apply and submit only one project within the 2023 Spring Seed Grant initiative.

Filling in the Application

The created Applications are listed in My Applications (link on the left-hand menu of the Home page).

Applicants should pay careful attention to the Guidelines and instructions, as an Application failing to meet the requirements will be rejected. An accurate Application will facilitate the review process.

Use English language only. For abbreviations and acronyms not universally known, spell out the term the first time it is used, with the appropriate abbreviation in parentheses; the abbreviation should then be used thereafter.

The text must be single-spaced, not exceeding the character number limitations specified (which include spaces).

Edit - Please click on the 'Edit' button if you wish to make any changes to your Application.

View/Print - Please click on the 'View/Print' button to generate the Application form as a PDF file. A PDF of the Application can be downloaded at any time by clicking on this button.

Validate - To validate the Application click 'Validate'. In the "Validation" section within the Application form eventual errors will be listed.

Submit - The Application form cannot be submitted until it has been validated to ensure that all required fields have been entered, and the data meet the submission requirements. The 'Submit' button is active once the Application has been correctly validated.

Delete - If you are sure you wish to delete the Application form, please click on the 'Delete' button. Please note: once an Application has been deleted it cannot be recovered.

To navigate into the Application sections, at the top of the Application page, the following buttons are shown:

Cancel, Previous, Next, Save, Save and Close.

Clicking the Cancel button all modifications are not saved and you are returned to My Application home page. Previous and Next buttons allow you to navigate into the Application, the Save button saves all modifications done, remaining on the Application page you are working on, while clicking on Save and Close you can save, exit the Application page and return to the Application form afterwards as often as you like.

Mandatory fields are indicated by red dots. To successfully submit an Application, all mandatory fields must be completed. Any item missing before submission is listed in the Validation section.

When the Application is validated, the Lead Applicant may Submit the Application, which will have to be approved by the Organisation Approver for the final submission (see detailed guidelines on page 8).

Before the Organisation Approval, the Application is displayed on My Applications home page in the status: Awaiting Signatory Approval.

The Application status will change in Submitted only after the approval by the Organisation Approver.

Upon Application Approval and Submission by the Organization Approver, a final Application number will be assigned to it. Please refer to this number in any future communications related to it.

A submitted Application cannot be further modified; should you need to apply some amendments prior to the Call deadline date click Contact Us on the left-hand menu.

Figures - The Application forms include special upload fields dedicated to figures at the end of the Preliminary Results (not mandatory) and Scientific Strategy sections.

Do not copy sections of already published papers.

All figures and legends must be placed together in one PDF document in A4 format.

In the Figures PDF, insert a footer with the name of the relevant section of the Application form followed by the indication "Figures" and the page number (for example a PDF uploaded into the Application section "Preliminary Results" should have the following footer: "Preliminary Results Figures - page 1 of 2", "Preliminary Results Figures - page 2 of 2", etc.)

Important notice: in the PDF version of the Application, all Figures files will be automatically collected and displayed at the end of the Application form PDF as an Appendix. Make sure that the appropriate figure numbers are correctly indicated in the text.

Please keep the PDF size below 25 MB. Use high resolution pictures only for photographs that require details; in this case a maximum resolution setting of 300 dpi (Photoshop: Image>Image Size>Resolution) for each photo is recommended.

If you include charts or drawings in your PDF, a resolution of 100 dpi for each picture can be used.

Make sure all the figures are perfectly readable both on the screen and printed.

Please activate in due time all necessary procedures to obtain this approval in accordance with the relevant Italian laws (<https://www.aifa.gov.it/modulistica-sperimentazione-clinica>).

Be aware that the relevant approval docs must be provided for grant activation.

Vertebrate animals

Specify whether or not experiments involving vertebrate animals are planned at any time during the proposed project.

Telethon rules and policy on animal experimentation

Telethon recognizes that experiments on animals are often necessary in many areas of biomedical research. Proposals submitted for the evaluation MUST explain why the scientific objectives cannot be achieved without using animals.

Where experiments using animals are necessary, you are required to strictly adhere to the relevant Italian laws, rules and regulations (D.to L.vo 26/2014); moreover, approval by your Institution Ethics Review Body is mandatory. The ethical review process is a means of ensuring that any use of animals within lab animal facilities is carefully considered, adequately justified and carried out as humanely as possible, so that any adverse effects experienced by the animals are more than offset by the benefits that arise from the study.

Measures should be put in place to avoid unnecessary duplication of research/testing and fully implement the Three Rs (Reduction, Replacement and Refinement, from The Principles of Humane Experimental Technique, Russell and Burch, 1959), from the moment it is recognized that an animal experiment will take place, through the period where the animals are sourced and arrive at the facility, and up to the time they are either dead or have been re-homed. This includes optimizing standards of animal husbandry and care and effective training, supervision and management of all personnel involved. Microbiological status is important not only because there are welfare imperatives in minimizing the incidence of disease but also to avoid the risk that subclinical infections affect research results.

Provide a detailed description of the proposed use of the animals in the work outlined and identify the species, strains, ages, and sex of animals to be used in the proposed work. Provide information on the veterinary care of the animals involved.

Make sure that the fewest animals compatible with obtaining a valid scientific result are used. In this regard, in planning your experiments you should carefully estimate the number of animals needed. You should take into account the likely magnitude of the effect you will be studying and the frequency with which that effect will be achieved for given levels of statistical significance and power. It is unacceptable to base the number of animals to be used solely on the calculation of the number of experiments that can be carried out at any given time. It is also unacceptable to state that the numbers are based on “previous experience” without additional justification, or to answer the question on numbers of animals to be used by paraphrases such as “these numbers are chosen as the minimum necessary to achieve statistical significance”. Too few animals are just as unsatisfactory as too many.

Be aware that the relevant approval docs must be provided for grant activation.

Collaborations

The Applicant should list all the collaborators and the required information.

Once added, the collaborator/s will receive an Invitation email and, upon acceptance, they have to support the Application by sending a collaboration letter directly to the Applicant, written in English, which will be uploaded online by the Applicant (see also TETRA Portal Instructions.pdf document).

Budget

Please note that the Budget section will appear on the left-hand menu and can be filled in properly only once you insert the Host Institution name.

A budget justification for each budget item is required in the “description” field and clearly related to the execution of the project. Please remember that the project duration is 18 months and the budget is allowed up to 70,000 Euro.

The amounts must be in Euro, please use whole numbers only.

The expenses report is required at project closure and only project-related expenses will be approved.
